RELEVANT WORK EXPERIENCE

September 2012 – Present	Freelance Photography Various freelance photography roles including commercial work, freelance weddings, exhibition organisation, and carrying out solo art projects.
September 2013 – Present	Story Weddings Photography This recent placement has given me a lot of freedom to learn on the job. My roles were to assist the photographer in his role on an organisational basis, and to assist in creating images. Photographs taken in this placement have been used in wedding books with good feedback from clients.
March 2014 - Present	Freelance Publication Work I have carried out various freelance publication jobs to aid my skills development. These include writing editorials, designing online interactive publications, and overseeing the creative process of setting up an independent new publication.

EMPLOYMENT / VOLUNTEERING

February 2013 - Present	Volunteer, The Herbert Art Gallery and Museum, Coventry Within this role I was responsible for invigilating exhibition spaces and talking to visitors about the exhibits. This allowed me to develop my people skills as well as having the opportunity of working with people who have a working knowledge of the photographic art industry.
May 2013 - Present	Student Ambassador, Coventry University School of Art & Design In this role I talk to prospective students about the Photography course, as well as leading practical workshops within a studio environment and traveling across the country to talk to students at UCAS fairs about the course and the University.
September 2013 – Present	Student/Graduate Media Production Assistant, Fresh@CU This role as a media production assistant for Coventry University's media production company has included data management and input, photographing large groups of people at graduation days, and administration work such as printing and posting documentation to clients.
